

PRESIDENT

The President shall be the executive officer of the congregation. He/she shall preside at all meetings of the Voting Members and the Board of Trustees. He/she shall uphold the Constitution and By-laws and otherwise perform such duties as pertain to the office.

The duties of the President shall include:

- Preside at meetings of the Board of Trustees and congregation.
- Schedule special meetings of the Board if required.
- Canvas Board members when important decisions must be made if a Board meeting is not or cannot be scheduled.
- Consult with Board members and Pastor and/or other staff on issues of importance to entire congregation.
- Appoint committee which nominates slates of officers.
- Work with the Pastor to draw up the agenda for scheduled meetings.
- Oversee all standing committees.

The President is elected to a one year term. He/she may be elected for one additional year.

Committees/volunteers serving under the President: (Time and Talent Survey)

STANDING COMMITTEES

Finance committee, Treasurer is Ex Officio

Endowment Committee, Treasurer is Ex Officio

Nominating Committee:

WELCA

Women of the WELCA; LACLA Women's Group

Men's Group (Men in Mission)

Mission Vision Committee